Learn how to

Apply your unique personality to the art of relationship selling

Understand the various verbal and non-verbal buying signals and how to respond to them

“

I am happy to report that we doubled our wine club sign up goal after the workshop. We are off to a great start!

—Nicole Pattalochi, Director of Hospitality, Archery Summit Winery

Build Memorable Client Experiences and Improve Your Bottom Line with Every Visitor

Participants of this full-day, interactive workshop learn how to maximize the revenue potential of each tasting room visitor while building strong bonds with them. Using the structured techniques of relationship sales skills taught in our workshop leads to greater customer satisfaction and sales.

To help cement the lessons, accelerate the application of newfound skills in your own tasting room, attendees receive worksheets and practice sessions throughout the day to lock-in new skill-sets immediately.

Participants may purchase Lynda Paulson's new book, Romancing the Grape, Relationship Selling for Hospitality Professionals, at a discount.

"Romancing the Grape should be in every tasting room!"
—Christina Frakes, St. Francis Winery

“Favorable attention is critical to winning new business. If the first impression is poor, you often never recover the opportunity. My teaching style is focused on positive, constructive instruction. This allows participants to stretch their creative muscles and gain critical insights for success by learning in a safe and supportive environment,” stated Paulson. “It’s also essential to keep it fun,” she added with a wink.
